

J.P. CORMIER

Renowned Cape Breton multi-instrumentalist, singer, & songwriter will be performing at a House Concert in BERKELEY on Sunday, March 8th at 7:30PM

First time in Berkeley for this amazing Cape Breton singer, songwriter, & multi-instrumentalist! Be prepared for some of the most incredible fiddling & guitar playing that you've ever seen!

J.P. Cormier is simply one of the most talented musicians there is. With at least 17 albums to his name, he has been the winner of 13 ECMAs (East Coast Music Awards), a Canadian Folk Music Award, 5 Music Industry of Nova Scotia (MIANS) Awards, was twice the winner of Best Reel at the Maritime Fiddle Festival, and has had 2 Juno nominations. In addition, he is the frequent recipient of accolades from some of the most respected musicians around.

J.P. excels at guitar, fiddle, mandolin, and banjo. At a minimum he'll be traveling here with a guitar and fiddle. But what made me fall in love with his music over 20 years ago (having seen him a number of times in Scotland at the Celtic Connections Festival, as well as once or twice in Canada) is his amazing songwriting and performance. He's also a great storyteller. Whereas he used to travel with 3 and 4 piece bands, he tours alone now, making his tour out here possible. His solo shows are a phenomenal display of amazing musicianship and outstanding performance.

This is truly a concert not to be missed!

Admission: $20 Advance/$23 at the Door. All proceeds go to the performers. Reservations required.
