

WILLIAM PINT

&

FELICIA DALE

will be performing at a House Concert in BERKELEY
on Sunday, April 8th
at 7:30PM

This phenomenal, internationally known, Seattle-based duo will be performing at an intimate house concert in Berkeley as their only California performance this spring!

Drawing on several cultures, Pint & Dale perform traditional and modern music and songs reflecting the immense vitality of those who live and work on the sea. With vocals, guitar, mandola, hurdy-gurdy, Irish pennywhistles, and percussion, they bring an energetic and contemporary spirit to their material. Their music fits into the world of modern folk, rock and popular song, but it's rich with the myth, narrative, rhythm, rhyme and lyric associated with the days of the tall ships. Pint & Dale gather together material from many locales and cultures including the British Isles and Brittany.

Pint & Dale have won an ardent following across the United States, Canada, the UK and Europe with their recordings and appearances at festivals and concerts. All 10 of their albums have received rave reviews on both sides of the Atlantic. With the touring that they have been doing on the East Coast plus some well-deserved time off from the road, it's a real treat to get them back here for their only Northern California appearance. It's been over 2 years since they've been here, and their concerts have frequently sold out, so reserve now to avoid disappointment!
